Tampa, FL, USA, 06/06/2017 – Dietzgen Corporation announced today that it has purchased the wide format media division of National / AZON Inc., including the converting assets and the Azon Color™ brand. The acquisition will consolidate two of the most recognized names in the reprographics market under the Dietzgen name, a recognized symbol of quality and service for over 100 years. With a series of eight (8) acquisitions over the past 25 years, Darren Letang, owner of Dietzgen Corporation, has created a nationwide footprint of converting and distribution for the North American print markets. After recognizing the need for local converting and distribution of paper for the reprographics Industry in 1990, Letang spent the past 25 years building a national footprint with dedicated facilities in Tampa, FL, West Haven, CT, Houston, TX, Charleston, IL, Corona, CA, Atlanta, GA and now Troy, MI and Baltimore, MD.

“The National / AZON sites were a perfect fit to expand our coverage into key areas, offer better service to our existing customers, and introduce Dietzgen to a new set of customers. We are pleased to welcome the National / AZON media team of professionals and customers to the Dietzgen family,” says Letang.
